THE SPEAKER

Take Them by the
—An Unceasing
Gold Standard. To be the night.

Columbus, O., Sept. 1.—The free silver campaign in Ohio attained its highwater mark in Cleveland last night, but the outpouring of people to see and hear the Democratic presidential candidate at the State Capitol to-night was greater in proportion to the size of the city than in the northern metropolis had been. Mr. Bryan had the State Capitol grounds for his forum, and the memory of the local politicians contains no such demonstration as the one in which he played the star part. Inhabitants say that no political attraction has ever drawn so strongly in Columbus.

A roofed and flag-draped platform faced the eastern front of the Capitol building, and as Mr. Bryan looked down from its heights, twenty feet above the street, he saw the steps and terraces packed in solid rows with the gloomy stone wall for the background, while about the other sides of the stage across the lawn of several acres to the eastward, stood regiments, of which an accurate estimate was an impossibility, and which a careful guess would place at 30,000.

From the Chittenden Hotel half a mile away Mr. Bryan came to the Capitol in a barouche drawn by four white horses, and under the escort of several free silver clubs of Columbus and neighboring towns, escorted by bands and unique campaign devices, in which mammoth silver dollars shared conspicuous places.

A shrill cheer marked his progress along the street, and multiplied in its intensity, announced his arrival at the platform, thereafter beating the air in wave after wave throughout his speech. On account of the size of his audience Mr. Bryan adopted a novel method of speaking, talking to sections of the crowd alternately from each of the four sides of the platform. Even then not more than one-tenth of the people could hear him.

He was introduced by Hon. Allen G. Burman, son of the "Old Roman," who has been fighting for free silver in Ohio for several years.

Mr. Bryan said:
Ladies and Gentlemen: This is the largest audience to which I ever tried to speak. I have had occasion to speak to audiences that filled the house, but never had occasion to speak to an audience which filled all outdoors. If you vote as you are now shouting I don't see how there can be any question about the triumph of free silver in the State of Ohio.

We have entered upon a campaign which means much to the American people. If our opponents speak truly when they describe what will in their judgment be the effect of free coinage then the success of the Chicago ticket would certainly be a calamity to the country. If, on the other hand, we speak the truth when we describe to you the effects of a gold standard continued, the maintenance of the gold standard until the foreign nations come to our relief is an evil which cannot be contemplated by those who love their country. We have begun an increasing warfare against the gold standard. The Republican party, without declaring the gold standard is a good thing, has declared that the gold standard must be maintained. I call your attention to the fact that no party in the history of this country has ever in a national convention commended the gold standard.

Here Mr. Bryan went from the front of the platform to the side, first excusing himself to the audience in front. He continued:

I desire to impress upon your minds the fact that the enemy we are fighting in this campaign is an enemy which has never gone into an open battle. The advocates of gold standard have never dared to submit the standard to the arbitrament of a ballot. Every step that has been taken has been taken by stealth and without the approval of the American people. When silver was demonetized in 1873 the people had not discussed it and persons who were members of Congress and who voted upon the measure testified that they did not understand that the bill demonetized silver. When the crime was discovered and the American people attempted to restore silver to its ancient place by the sale of gold, the opponents of free coinage forced the Bland act upon Congress as a compromise, and as soon as the Bland act went into force the enemies of free silver proceeded to repeal the Bland act and left nothing in its place. But the silver sentiment grew until 1890 and in that year the opponents of free coinage, being afraid of the passage of a free coinage bill, secured another compromise which was known as the Sherman law.

Under the support of that measure Senator Sherman made a speech and in the course of that speech he went on to say that we required more than $42,000,000 new money every year to keep pace with population and industry and he advocated that measure on the ground that it gave to the people more money and yet in his recollections, published only a few months ago, you will find that Senator Sherman there says that he was in favor of the Sherman law simply to prevent free coinage and that he was willing to vote for its repeal the day after it was enacted if he could prevent the substitution of free coinage. There you will find the chief—the chief supporter of the gold standard policy in the United States—supporting a bill because it gave money to the American people and then declaring that he would vote for the repeal the very next day. (Applause.)

They secured the repeal of the Sherman law and they pretended that when they got that out of the way they would restore silver to its former place. There were some who said that the trend of the Sherman law was to that end and that we had to clear away the rubbish before we could build up a good system; and there were others who said that if we stood by free silver we would drive Europe to bimetalism. But those who made this argument have proven that they were not sincere and that their purpose was to deceive the American people. (Applause.)

In this campaign every party in its platform so far, has declared that the principle of bimetalism is better than a gold standard; and yet in spite of these declarations you know there is a body of people in the United States who, under the cover of friendliness to bimetalism, are seeking to fasten a gold standard upon the American people.

Mr. Bryan then went to another part of the platform and said:

Now you will find people who are afraid of a flood of silver. There is nothing that excites my sympathy more than to find a man who never had enough money in his life, who has not enough to pay his debts, and does not know where the money is coming from to buy food for the next week. There are some people who have an idea that free and unlimited coinage of silver will, in some way, ruin the country. Did you ever try to figure out just how a foreign man was going to hurt us by bringing silver here? If not, suppose you examine the situation and see whether you can find any way in which you can be injured by free silver. You know that free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1. Then what? Why any person who is not a fool would take these dollars out to hurt the American people with, and how would he do it? He could take that money home, and he would be required to pay the freight on it, and he would lose the cost of coinage and lose the freight both ways, and we could stand it longer than he could. Ah, you say that he would trade that silver for gold and take the gold away and leave the silver. Where would he get the gold? Would he get it in the Treasury of the United States? Not under bimetalism, because under bimetalism the Government does not agree to swap, but under bimetalism the Government convert the silver bullion into silver money and gold bullion into gold coin, and make them legal tender for all debts, public and private. But it does not agree to redeem a gold dollar in silver or a silver dollar in gold. (Applause.) So that under bimetalism this foreigner could not exchange his silver at the mint for gold unless the Government was disposed to let him do it. Where would he get the gold? He would have to find somebody with the gold; he could not hurt any body by trading silver for gold until he found somebody who had the gold, and that would let most of the people out of danger. In Illinois last year, friendly and my opponent was very friendly and we called each other brother, and in the course of the speech he turned to me and said: "Brother Bryan, will you lend me a silver dollar to illustrate my argument? I have not any." When it came my turn, I thought I would try and experiment and said: "Brother, I want to use a gold coin to illustrate my argument. I haven't any. Will you let me have one?" He got red in the face; he did not have any, and I called the attention of the audience to the fact that I was defending silver, and to the fact that the enemy he did not let the gold with which to illustrate his argument, and he had just told them

News Item About Ben.

Indianapolis, Aug. 31.—The burden of gossip at Indianapolis is to the effect that there will be another occupant of the comfortable home of ex-President Harrison in this city. At the time of Gen. Harrison's recent marriage the women of the burg rather backed up Mrs. McKee in her opposition to that happening, but that sentiment has veered, and the feeling is now with Gen. Harrison and his bride.

Buckner has practically no opposition for the second place on the ticket. The names most prominently mentioned in connection with the Presidential nomination are Palmer, Bland and Bragg. Forty-one States and three Territories are represented.

BETHEL FEMALE COLLEGE.

Opening of The Fall Session Under The New Management.

The 43rd annual session of Bethel Female College began Wednesday with encouraging prospects for a good school year.

This old and firmly established institution is one of the best of the several excellent schools that have given Hopkinsville the reputation it enjoys as an educational center more fortunately situated than any other city in western Kentucky.

The College is beautifully situated in the southwestern portion of the city, in a large and shady lawn and within a few minutes walk of the business portion of the city. The school opens this fall under the new management and the building itself is newly furnished from the basement to the fourth story. The furniture in the bedrooms is nice and new and everything is cozy and comfortable for the young ladies who have given Hopkinsville the reputation it enjoys as an educational center more fortunately situated than any other city in western Kentucky.

ANOTHER STATE FIRE.

Like The Edyville Prison. The Feeble-minded Institute Goes To The Smoke. Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 1.—The most destructive fire that Frankfort has had in many years occurred this afternoon when the main building of State Feeble-minded Institute was burned to the ground, entailing a loss of nearly $150,000. The building was totally covered by an insurance of $86,000 on all the buildings.

The fire originated in the highest room in the building in a freight tower, which was used for storing rags, etc., to patch the children's clothing. The city fire department responded promptly but the fire was so high up that the water could be thrown only to the second story windows by the water-works pressure.

There were very few tanks in the smaller towers of the building, but the hose from these could not force the water on the fire which was higher than the tanks, and thus the fire department was powerless and had to stand by and see the building burn. All the children, 118 in number, were removed in safety and tonight are comfortably housed in the temporary frame buildings that were erected seven years ago when the same institution was burned the first time.

Special Service at Hotel Latham.

Hotel Latham is now enjoying a most liberal patronage, which it at all times deserves. Mr. W. C. Stark, the manager, is sparing no effort to make the hotel comfortable and to provide hostleries in the South and is succeeding well in his undertaking. On next Sunday a special dinner will be given for the benefit of traveling men who will make this city a Sunday lay-over and these "swell" dinners will hereafter be given regularly. The citizens of Hopkinsville should take advantage of the opportunity to patronize the Latham on these special occasions as the service will be most excellent and the price will be well pleased.

Post Johnson, Free Bryan.

Washington, Sept. 1.—E. P. Johnson, special agent of the treasury at St. Louis, is in Washington inspecting the Georgetown customs and to transmit business with the post office department. Mr. Johnson has been counted as a bolt Chicago ticket and a plotting person found here he is so sure to become and I shall be a Chicago ticket.

WILL O' THE WISP.

Gold and the Money Lenders—No Enough

Cash to Develop Resources.

Gold in the United States is like a will-o'-the-wisp—first, our government has some (bought in the market), and then it seems to have none, and more must be bought. Some gold man states that the treasury so far has been able to meet its obligations in gold. Certainly it has, but at the expense of its credit and its taxpayers. To keep on issuing notes, as has been done during the last two years, is merely robbing Peter to pay Paul. A medium which can be cornered as easily as gold can be certainly an unstable one to use for our country. Our reserve is raided whenever it suits gold bugs to do so, as witness within the last few days Canadian banks withdrawing large sums of gold from the treasury, and still placing it in this country. They are not doing this for fun; there must be, and is, a profit in it for them to do so. Bankers of New York city and elsewhere have had to come to the relief of the United States, which was again being raided, with millions of gold.

This, of course, is done so as not to scare still greater numbers of our people over the silver bugaboo. These bankers did not take silver or silver certificates in exchange for the gold furnished, but did obtain treasury notes payable in gold so long as a dollar of it left. Where, then, is our present money, other than gold, equal to or on par with gold? This country cannot do business with profit to anyone except money lenders so long as its gold standard does not have a larger circulation than $0.61 per capita. Our wealth per capita exceeds $1,000. We are one immense nation of business buffers, and we have not enough cash capital with which to develop this wealth profitably to all concerned. Hence, we are always borrowing, always paying interest and always at the mercy of slaylocks. Can a man who owns a farm or a factory or a stock of goods worth over $1,000 successfully develop it upon a cash capital of about $27 without paying most of his profits in tribute to some one else? This is the condition in which

Uncle Sam finds himself.—Cor. Elmira

THE CASE AS IT IS.

Why Workmen Favor Silver—Would

Set the Factories A-Gliding.

If the capitalists had the world run here with their silver and coin it is American silver dollars, what are they going to do with those dollars? They will, of course, invest them in American enterprises, build railroads and start factories, increasing the demand for silver.

This is why workmen and business men will vote for free silver.

That is the way in which a correspondent writes to the New York World. He puts the case as it is. If all the silver in the world were to come to the United States, the United States would be the richer by the amount of silver in the world. Opponents of free silver say that our gold would go for the world's silver, but they fail to explain how this would occur. Under free coinage those who took their bullion to the mints would receive in return silver dollars. The government would mint it and stamp it and that is all; it would not undertake to buy the the fact that our gold stand-chief gold producing coun-world from 1850 to 1870, the States shipped away considerable during that period; but so did Australia under the single gold standard. So far as the effect of free coinage is, concerned it cannot be cited by the school as the cause of gold exports at any time or place in history.

The experience of India during over half a century of free coinage is significant. From 1833 down to 1893 India imported $310,000,000 of gold and exported only $38,000,000. Here was a net gain of gold aggregating $272,000, 000 in 35 years of free coinage. This is all the more significant because from 1873 to 1893 Europe and the United States had demonetized silver. Even during the last 20 years of free coinage, India gained $270,000,000 in gold.

States director of the mint for 1893,

THEY DIDN'T THINK OF THAT.

In a recent article on life insurance and silver I said that, says a correspondent in the Chicago Record, that if free silver wins the assets of the life insurance companies might shrink 25 to 30 per cent. in value, and, therefore, some of these companies might be forced into bankruptcy. I had the idea that the majority of the assets of the life insurance companies consisted of mortgages on real estate, which certainly would not be endangered by free silver, as property will not decrease, but appreciate in value.

Release is at hand for all sufferers from coughs and colds or disease of the throat, bronchial tubes or nasal cavities who will restore to the right remedy. Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey cures all disorders and sicknesses of this kind. Thousands have testified to this fact. It is made of simple and harmless ingredients of pine tar and honey—scientifically combined. It never fails. There is nothing "just as good."

Take no substitute from any druggist.

Good Old Granny Metcalf, 67 years old, living at 1005 South Fifth street, Paducah Ky., says that Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey is the best grip cure, cough, lung and bronchial remedy that has been offered to the public during her life.

Druggist's sell it.

Neglected coughs and colds are dangerous. A summer cold permitted to run into winter frequently means pneumonia. A winter cough and cold neglected lead to consumption. Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey will cure a winter cold or a summer cold or a cough of any kind every time. It is harmless. All good druggists sell it.

A cold in the head is one of the most distressing and disconcerting of maladies. It causes loss of sleep, if neglected it terminates in that most obnoxious of all diseases, catarrh of the head or throat. Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey is a prompt and never failing cure.

THE BICYCLE RAFFLE.
Machines Sold on Chances at Many Cigar and Drug Stores.

The bicycle raffle has caught the town. The number of wheels sold this season of it has been every where astonishing. Unlike the turkey raffle, the bicycle raffle shuns the saloon. It is usually held in cigar or drug stores, and in certain parts of the town proprietors of such stores who do not have raffles at least twice a month begin to notice that their popularity and their trade is on the increase.

The raffle tickets are arranged in cumulative order and range in price from one cent to $1.50 for high grade wheels, one dollar being the maximum limit on tickets for wheels of inferior make. The purchaser draws from a bunch of sealed envelopes and pays the price marked on the enclosed card. This method of selling tickets, which lends an additional element of chance to the lottery, has proved very effective. Strong, indeed, must be the will of the young man who can resist the temptation to try his luck at the bicycle raffle, a wheel at small cost. The people who conduct the raffles always assure prospective victims that "nearly all the high numbers have been drawn." Thus encouraged, the young man draws his ticket, and draws three innocent-looking envelopes. The first ticket may read "49 cents." That is not bad, but the other may cost $1.33 and $1.46 respectively. Slowly and thoughtfully the victim pays the bill, while his friend, who holds the cards, smilingly sympathizes with him for a moment and then goes off to seek other game, leaving the spectator to reflect upon the fact that he is out $2.50 and has lost the chance of 150 of winning a second-hand wheel.

The raffle scheme is not practiced alone by persons who want to get rid of old wheels. Many smart people have adopted it purely as a business venture, and offer the winner his choice of any wheel made by a certain manufacturer. One of these enterprising fellows explained his method as follows: "I go to a factory and tell the manager that I want to raffie one of his machines. Upon the payment of a small amount he places a bicycle in the window of a certain cigar store. The balance is paid after I have sold all my tickets. One hundred and fifty of them sell about $1.15 each, and my wheels at reduced rates I clear quite a sum on every raffle. Why do I get a discount? Well, in these days of close competition makers take advantage of every opportunity to advance their wheels, and which is displayed for a month in a cigar store, where it will be noticed and talked about, gets more advertising than it would if exhibited at half a dozen cycle shows. Then again you make the cigar man profit. The lucky man must of course set 'em up, and as everyone present is a loser and naturally wants all he can get for his money, he calls for the best in stock.

The deplorable fate of this, the latest offspring of the cycling craze, is that it develops a habit which seems to be contagious. If anyone doubts the truth of this statement, let him investigate, and he will find that many of his young male acquaintances hold one or more tickets in some bicycle raffle.

Colors of Flame.
You have often noticed the many tinted bars and bands that rise in the shape of "forked tongues of flame" from wood burning in the grate. It is ten to one, however, that you never have thought to figure out the cause of the various hues presented by flames. To bring the matter quickly to the point, we will say that the many colors are the result of combustion among the different elements of the wood. The light blue is from the hydrogen and the white from the carbon, the violet is from the manganese, the red from the magnesia and the yellow from the soda, which are constituent parts of the wood.

A Girl Who Kills Bears.
There is a young woman out in California who has killed eleven bears, one of which was a grizzly. Her name is Miss Phoebe Patterson and she sorrowfully exhibits among her trophies three full grown black bears and the skin of the mother bear which she was compelled to shoot to save her own life. She took the young cubs to raise as a sort of penance for depriving them of their natural protector, but she has grown very fond of them and allows them to kiss and play with her like children.

Can Insect Publishers' Books.
Paul Bourget has won his case from Lemorre, the publisher, and henceforth French authors will have the power to have their publishers' books examined in order to see that they are not cheated out of their royalties. There was no pretense that M. Lemorre had not paid Bourget all that was due him, but he objected to having his books inspected.

—Temper, if unquenched, governs the whole man.—Shaftesbury.

Its Value Recognized by Physicians.
As a rule I am opposed to proprietary medicines. Still I value a good one, especially when such is the source of relief from pain. As a topical (external) application I have found Chamberlain's Pain Balm the best remedy I ever used for neuralgic and rheumatic pains. I have conscientiously recommended it to many patients. William Horne, M. D., Janesville, Wis. Sold by C. K. Wyly, druggist.

The doctor may be a good old man, but even an 80, medical examinations are abundant to every modest woman. They are embarrassing—often useless. They should not be submitted to until everything else has been tried. In nine cases out of ten, there is no reason for them. In nine cases out of ten, the doctor in general practice isn't content to treat the cause of the disease. They make a branch of medicine by themselves. They are distinct from other ailments. They can be properly understood and treated only by one who has had years of actual practice and experience in this particular line. This is true of Dr. V. Y. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a remedy for the diseases of women, has been in actual use for more than thirty years. It cures every form of female weakness.

It looks as if David B. Hill proposed to dine his way back into the Democratic party.

In a recent letter to the manufacturers Mr. W. F. Benjamin, editor of the "Specie," advised N. Y. agents: "It may be pleasure to you to know the high esteem in which Chamberlain's medicines are held by the people of this country. The Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of colds and croup; Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, lame back pains in the side and chest; and Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints, and before leaving home, take in constant use in Iowa for almost a quarter of a century. The people have learned that they are articles of great worth and value, and unequalled by any other. They are for sale here by C. K. Wyly, druggist."

It is said that Willie Walcott Astor is about to float a new matrimonial venture in London.

WE DEMAND the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the aid or consent of any other nation. We demand that the standard silver dollar shall be a full legal tender equally with gold for all debts, public and private.—Democratic National Platform, 1896.

Free coinage means that silver and gold bullion shall be coined without charge by the United States mints.
Unlimited coinage means that all the gold and all the silver presented at the United States mints shall be coined into money.
The ratio of 16 to 1 means that a number of grains of pure silver in a silver dollar shall be sixteen times the number of grains of pure gold in a gold dollar.
By a full legal tender is meant that when a debtor offers either gold or silver to a creditor in any sum whatever, the creditor is bound to accept the same and discharge the debtor from his liability.

Mr. Bryan's reception in Ohio has been even more cordial than in New York, where his tour of ten days was a constant ovation. At Cleveland Monday night he spoke to three great gatherings, aggregating 20,000, and on Tuesday night he was listened to at Columbus by the greatest crowd ever brought together in Ohio. It filled acres of ground and numbered fully 30,000 people, all of whom seemed to be shouting for the magnetic leader who is shaking the country with enthusiasm without a parallel in the history of politics. The handful of soreheads at Indianapolis can no more stop the popular wave that is carrying Bryan into the White House than an empty barrel could have sated the waters of the Johnstown flood. It is true the barrel in this case is not empty, but filled with gold as it is it can no more defeat the man the people are determined to elect than a toy balloon could have blocked the progress of the St. Louis cyclone. All figures, estimates and logical conclusions are swept aside in the matter of years, and this time we may expect to see such a landslide as never swept any country. It will be a ground swell from ocean to ocean, a resistless demand for financial relief from an aroused and determined people. Bryan will carry McKinley's own State.

"Zek," said a Ma'u street merchant the other day to an old negro in Hopkinsville, "how do you stand on the silver question?"
"How's dat, sah?"
"What do you think of silver?" was again asked.
Uncle Zek took his pipe out of his mouth and slowly replied:
"Well sah, I'm fur dat thing, and I'll tell yer cause why. De circumstances an jes dis. Yer see dis gold money we hear so much about is er mighty shorree article and what dey do dey don't make no littler than a dollar. I aint in favor of no gold money, cause when I aed a white fren to gimme a time he'd say everytime, 'Zek I'm sorry, but I aint got de change.' Dat bein de case sah, I'm what yer mought call a free silver man."

The Henderson Journal pays this handsome compliment to a young lawyer of the Hopkinsville bar:
"It seems probable that James B.
Allensworth, of Christian county, will be a candidate for Commonwealth Attorney in the Third Judicial District.
Mr. Allensworth is a lawyer of fine ability, studious, industrious and closely attentive to every interest committed to his charge, and is in every way admirably qualified for the office of Commonwealth Attorney. Although not in our bailiwick, the good of the State would be well served by his election."

In the face of the advice of McKinley that the farmers raise less wheat if they want to get better prices, the official Republican organ of Kentucky, unintentionally makes this truthful statement:
"Right here in Kentucky, thousands of people are suffering for bread.
Actual hunger is being felt by thousands of people who are able and willing to work, and yet we are told in the McKinley platform that 'the existing gold standard must be preserved.'"

Messrs. Ben Watts and C. M. Lewis have begun the publication of a new afternoon paper at Bowling Green called the Evening Journal. It is Democratic and takes up the silver fight where the Times left off when Gen. Buckner gobbled it. The latter paper has not come out for gold, but the discussion of the silver question has been stopped.

Every voter who changes his precinct after to-day loses his vote in November. If you want to take a hand in the victory sixty days from now stay right where you are until you stick it in for Bryan.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable.
For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Cathartic Cure, manufactured by F. J.
Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoon. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,

The Chicago Record says that Indianapolis hotel keepers complain bitterly that every bolshewick who attended the convention insisted upon having a room with a bath room connected. The crowd was just about the toniest that ever struck a free silver State like Indiana. But as they were engaged in very dirty work they ought to have all the bath rooms they wanted.

Twenty years ago a bushel of Western wheat would pay England and Wall street a dollar of the gold standard national debt. Now it takes two bushels. That is what is the matter with the West. And the remedy the Republican platform proposes is more bonds, while Mc-Kinley adds that we must raise less wheat.—Post Dispatch.

If, as the most reliable statistics affirm, there are nearly seven thousand and millions of coin or bullion in the world, not very unequally divided between gold and silver, it is impossible to strike silver out of existence as money without results which will prove distressing to millions, and utterly disastrous to tens of thousands.

Dr. H. K. Pusey, for years the Superintendent of the Lakeland Asylum, died Tuesday night near Gar-netville, of exhaustion from the was in his seventy year. Dr. Pusey leaves a wife and six children. Mrs.

C. S. Jarrett, of this city, being one

We present to-day another of Bryan's great speeches and only regret that we have not room to publish them all. No such public utterances have ever been heard before in this country. Nor has any one man ever addressed so many people in the same length of time as Mr. Bryan has spoken to within the last three weeks.

The bolshewicks have as their chairman, Senator Palmer, of Illinois. Mr.
Palmer, who has been a Republican and a Democrat as the circumstances of the case seemed to demand, was elected Senator by the act of two Populists who held the balance of power in the Illinois legislature.—Muhlen-berger.

Madison, Ohio, is the only town that has insulted Bryan. A crowd of Republican hoodlums appeared at his speaking wearing yellow badges and interrupted by howling for Mr.
Kinley. They were finally suppressed by the decent people present, regardless of party.

It is said that whenever Li Hung Chang is presented to a stranger he asks him how much he is worth and how he got it. Perhaps it was just as well that John Sherman was not on the reception committee to welcome Li.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.
